Binta Diallo

Benefits Specialist

Years of Experience: Benefits Specialist with 8 years of HR experience, beginning with a fellowship in 2018 and expanding across multiple areas of Human Resources and People Operations.

Education: Bachelor of Science – American University
Master of Science Information Technology – Southern NH University

Industry Experience: My experience spans a variety of industries, including financial services, entertainment, nonprofit, consulting, and small business environments, giving me a broad perspective on the people side of organizations.

Why do you love what you do? I love what I do because it allows me to make a meaningful difference in people's lives. Whether I'm helping someone navigate a life change, supporting their growth, or ensuring they feel valued and supported, I find purpose in creating positive employee experiences. To me, Human Resources is about building trust, fostering connection, and helping people thrive both personally and professionally.

I'm a passionate HR professional with experience across a variety of industries. At my core, I'm a student of life who is driven by continuous learning, meaningful connections, and exploring the world. Outside of work, I enjoy traveling, exploring different cultures, and being creative. Professionally, I'm passionate about employee experience, benefits, and helping people feel valued, supported, and empowered to thrive.
